Sixth Graders Take Field Trip to AmeriTowne

On Tuesday, the 6th grade class took a field trip to Young AmeriTowne in Lenora. Beforehand they completed the financial literacy curriculum and interviewed for jobs and positions. It was a really great experience! Photos by Mrs. Blank and Mrs. Stites

Our Paras Rock!

Paraprofessional Appreciation Day was last Wednesday, and we have the best paras EVER in our building! They do so much to help out our students and teachers. Thank you!

Eighth Graders Enjoy Hands-On Experiences at NCK Tech in Beloit

On April 5, the eighth graders took a trip to NCK Tech in Beloit. They had fun visiting the many different buildings on campus, and they learned a lot about the different areas of study NCK Tech has to offer!

Tracksters Jump into First Meet of the Season

Last Thursday the track athletes headed to Norton for their first meet. The day started off chilly, but warmed up in the afternoon. They did a great job!
