Easter Traditions Revealed by PJH Students

Easter is just around the corner! We asked our students what their favorite Easter traditions are, and they had some fun responses. We wish you all a "hoppy" Easter!

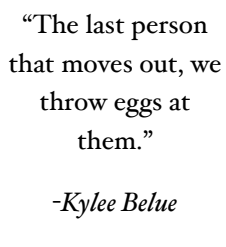

"Spending Easter with my siblings."

-Cody Dettmer

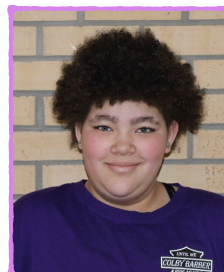

"We have an Easter egg hunt inside my house, and in every egg, there is a dollar. Unless you get a bad egg, then you have to give a dollar back."

-Kynley Griffin

"The last person that moves out, we throw eggs at them."

-Kylee Belue

"Finding money in eggs!"

-Emmalynn Brown

"We have coffee cake in the morning, and we always have an Easter egg hunt."

-Ella Wenzl

"Getting an Easter basket full of stuff and going to church."

-Caitlyn Engle

"My favorite tradition is having Easter dinner."

-Johnna Ebner

"We go egg hunting and then we take a picture of us siblings."

-Marissa Arment

Schick Brothers and Co. Run Trains for 7th Graders

On Wednesday afternoon the 7th graders got to go to Huck Boyd to watch the trains run. It was awesome! Thank you!
