5th Graders Looking Forward to Learning

Our fifth grade class is small, but also competitive and full of personality. They are getting used to switching classrooms and having multiple teachers. We asked them what they are most looking forward to this year. They had some interesting responses!

"I'm looking forward to the end of the school year."

-Bryson Shaw

"I'm looking forward to learning new things."

-Adelynn Yoxall

"I'm looking forward to... uhhh... learning."

-Reid Pfortmiller

"I'm looking forward to meeting new teachers."

-Meab Russom

New MS Teachers Hit the Ground Running

We have four cool teachers that are new to the Middle School this year. We are really glad they're here!

Miss Kelsi Blew is teaching 7th and 8th grade English this year. She grew up in Phillipsburg and got her bachelor's degree from Fort Hays State University and is working toward her master's. She said, "I am looking forward to getting to know my students and building their love for learning."

Miss Hannah Christofer is teaching 5th and 6th grade reading this year. She grew up in Republic, Ohio and earned her bachelor's degree from Cedarville University. She said, "I am looking forward to getting to know the people here."

Miss Meredith Jacobs is teaching special education this year. She grew up in Phillipsburg and is teaching while getting her bachelor's and master's degrees from Fort Hays State University. She said, "I am looking forward to getting to know all of my students and making this a fun year for everyone!"

Mrs. Terra Keeten is teaching 7th and 8th grade math this year. She grew up in Smith Center and got her bachelor's degree from KSU and her master's degree from FHSU. She said, "I'm excited to be at the middle school. I look forward to teaching many of the same students I had a few years back when they were in 4th grade. It is neat to see how much they have grown and matured in those 3-4 years. I am always anxious for new adventures and I think this year will be awesome!"

First Day of School Brings Excitement to PJH Hallways

We walked into school on the first day to see lots of changes! New teachers, familiar teachers in different classrooms, an expanded lunchroom, and more! We had a great summer, but it's sure good to be back in school to see our teachers and friends. Let's have a great school year!!

"I'm looking forward to having more than one teacher."

-Jack Seems

"I'm looking forward to getting smarter."

-Brielle Werner

Pubs Class Ready to Bring You the News

Mrs. Molzahn has a new bunch of publications students to share the news and take pics. Please don't run away if you see them with the camera. Cheeeeeese!
