Elementary Honor Choir Set to Perform

Six of our 5th and 6th grade students were selected as KMEA elementary honor choir members. They will get to practice for and perform in a concert on the FHSU campus this Saturday. Good luck and have fun, guys!

Front: Emmalynn Brown, Bella Stites, Lydia Patterson.

Back: Emalee Russell, Griffin Hamons, Kyla Vrbas.

Door Decorating Fun

Community groups have been busy decorating doors for the Christmas door decorating contest. Way to work together to create so many fun designs, kids! The teachers will vote, and the winners will be announced on Monday. Good luck to all!

Students Enjoy Family Christmas Activities ❤️🎄❤️

Our students enjoy the holidays, of course, and they are looking forward to some much-needed time off over break. We asked them what their favorite family Christmas activity is, and they had some fun responses!

"Eating cookies."

-Isaiab Michael

"Spinning kitties in the snow."

-Madison Johnson

"Making homemade subs."

-Johnathan Eakin

"Decorating or Secret Santa."

-Azariah Christy

"Playing in the snow."

-Izzy Epley

"Eating dinner with everyone."

-Conner Jurey

"Gift exchange, and this year we are going to Mexico for Christmas!"

-Valeria Hernandez

"Getting to be with my family."

-Lane Gower

Basketball Teams Work Toward Team Building

Basketball is winding down for the season. All of our teams have been working together, and our varsity teams did well in the MCEL tournament. Both played in the consolation finals last night. Our girls placed 4th after a tough double OT loss to Smith Center, and the boys beat Ellis to earn 3rd place. Way to go, Panthers!
