Seems Honored as Nov. Rotary Student

On November 17, Ryleigh Seems was honored as the Rotary Student for the month of November. She got to eat lunch at Willer's with Mrs. Pinkerton. Way to go, Ryleigh!

Honor Choir Students to Perform Tomorrow

Fifth and sixth grade vocal music students had the option to try out for KMEA elementary honor choir and will practice and perform at a concert in Hays this Saturday. The following students were selected: Hendrix Jarvis, Colten Leidig, Emerson Grote, Sandro Beim, Autumn Hueneke, and James Poels. Good job, musical peeps!

Students Honor Veterans With Posters & Poems

Our students did a fantastic job creating posters and poems to honor our country's veterans!

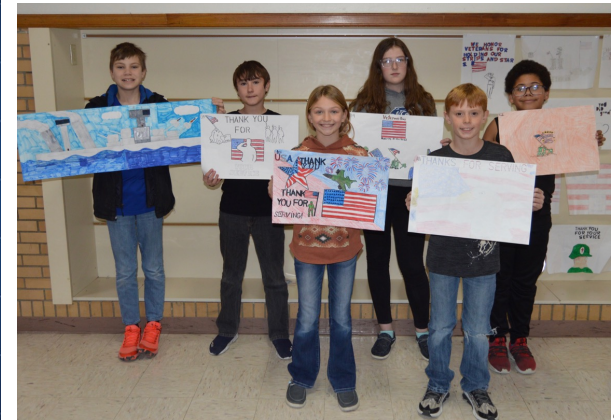

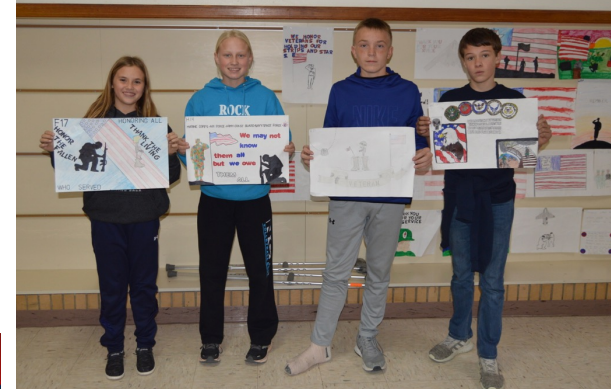

5th grade winners: Cordell Dusin and Prestyn Hilburn.

6th grade winners: there was a three-way tie between Nicholas Hale, Trey Riedel, and Kameron Steelsmith for the boys, and the girl was Natalie Van Allen.

7th grade winners: Cooper Gower and Tessa Ragsdale.

8th grade winners: Waylon Cecil and Kalinda Meili.

Jhett Johnson and Julia Walker tied for the best overall poem, and Skyla Russell won the best overall poster. Thank you for honoring our veterans!

Jr. Panthers Enjoy Exciting Basketball Pep Rally

On November 17, our cheerleaders put on a really fun pep rally! The band played, the basketball teams gave speeches, the cheerleaders amazed us with their cheers and builds, and the skit was a competitive game of knockout. Good job to all!
