PJH Spellers Sweep Phillips County Spelling Bee

Last Thursday our top ten spellers went to Huck Boyd for the Phillips County Spelling Bee. It was really competitive, and in the end three of our students earned the top three spots: AJ Jensen, Chloe VanDerVeen, and Michael VanDerVeen. AJ had to spell these words to win: cartoon, bribery, mangrove, bonito, extinguish, vacuum, piratical, infatuation, syllabus, centipede, hermitage, and jalapeño. Wow! Good job to all who competed and succeeded! Photos by Mrs. VanDerVeen and Mr. Strasburg

MS Scholars Compete at Smith Center Meet 🧐

On Monday, scholars bowl students competed at Smith Center. The 7th grade B team earned 2nd place and went 6-3 on the day. The other teams did a great job too and enjoyed walking tacos and spending time together with friends.

Hands-On Science 🐛

Mr. Beckman's Science students have been doing some fun activities in class. The 8th graders are dissecting worms, and the 7th graders are working on a speed lab. Cool beans!

Wrestlers Take Down Opponents at Meet in Oberlin

Last Thursday the wrestlers went to Oberlin to try out their skills. They did great! They are all working hard in practice and improving every day. Tonight they wrestle Norton at home, so come out and support them!
