Students Bond and Read on Read Aloud Day

On the Wednesday before break, we walked down to the elementary school in our pajamas and got to read with the younger students. It was really fun!

PJH Students Enjoy Nine Weeks Reward Day

On December 21 in the afternoon, students who qualified got to choose from dodgeball, an escape room, games, movies, and chill time in teachers' rooms. It was a cool way to close out the year!

Hughes Honored as Dec. Rotary Student

On December 20, Dreyton Hughes was honored at the December Rotary meeting. He was chosen by his teachers for the honor. He got to eat lunch with Mr. Look and Mr. Beckman. Way to go, Dreyton!

New Pubs Students To Bring News to You

Mrs. Molzahn has a new crop of students ready to take pics and bring you the news!

Students Rock Their Ugly Sweaters Before Break

On the Thursday before break, some students wore their ugly sweaters and hats to school. There were some pretty snazzy, sparkly, ugly, and crazy ones! Good times!

Bohl Builds 🏗️ Tower

The first semester tech students closed out the semester by testing the balsa wood towers they built in class. All of the students did great, and Louis Bohl's tower was freakishly strong! It weighed 17 grams and held 587 lbs/force. We're starting to wonder if he used some secret crazy glue or something. Way to go, Louis!
