PJH Students Enjoy Unexpected Snow Day

Last Thursday we had an unexpected snow day. It was awesome! We had only been back to school a couple days, then we got the gift of a day away from school. Some of our students let us know how they spent their time.

"I went to Trey Sides's basketball game."

-Chloe Jacobs

"I slept and ate snow."

-Aiden Gendoes

"I played Farming Simulator."

-Garrett Johnson

"I cleaned the table off in our house, made Oreo balls, and watched movies."

-Natalie Van Allen

"I watched Momma Mia! and helped my Mom with daycare kids."

-Marissa Arment

"I worked."

-Cooper Bobl

"I went sledding behind the 4-wheelers and I was driving and I spun out with my cousins on the sled."

-Kaitlyn McCreery

Virtual Career Tours

On Wednesday morning, 7th and 8th grade students got to attend zoom meetings with professionals in the following careers: doctor, veterinarian, diesel technician, aviation, and welding. It was a great experience and they learned a lot!
