Runyon Honored as Jan. Rotary Student

Last Thursday Madyson Runyon was honored as student of the month at the January Rotary meeting. She got to eat lunch at Willer's with Mrs. Dusin. Nice job, Mady!

Last Pep Rally Rocked

Our wrestling pep rally was held last Wednesday since the wrestling team had to leave early on Thursday. It was awesome! Way to go, band, cheerleaders, wrestlers, and Panther fans!

PJH Students Highlight Benefits of Living in Kansas

Kansas Day is this Saturday! Our great state has a lot to offer. We asked our students what they like about living here.

"You get to live on a farm and have a lot of animals."

-Kinley Krafft

"There are big deer to hunt."

-Lane Gower

"I like how it is nice and spacious."

-Jesse Dettmer

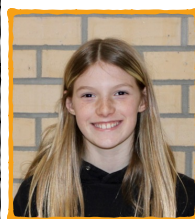

"I like all the sunflowers, wheat fields, and all the pastures full of cows."

-Kalinda Meili

"It doesn't have huge cities except Kansas City, although the bigger part is in Missouri."

-Carter Bogart

"The weather changes a lot and the flowers are beautiful."

-Aerianna Gruber

"I like not living in bigger cities."

-Cleveland Corman

"Being able to sit and enjoy the open land."

-Savannah Moore

Jr. Panther Wrestlers Take Charge at First Meet

Our wrestling team had a great first meet here at home last Thursday. Our wrestlers won a lot of matches and everyone learned a lot!
