Middle School Students Rock Youth Entrepreneurship Challenge 📱🐕🐈🌱

Congratulations to the students who competed in the Youth Entrepreneurship Challenge on March 9. They had to come up with a business idea, submit a business plan, create a tradeshow, and pitch their idea to a panel of judges. Seven groups submitted business ideas, and all of our students placed in the top five. Aidan Derr and Jacob Luea earned 5th place and $50 for their "Greening Hands Yard Work" business. Kinsey Archer, Caydence Ewing, and Hannah Umbarger got 4th place and $100 for their "Cups and Claws" business idea. Kalinda Meili earned 3rd place and $200 for her "Rockin' KM Ranch" business idea, and Gabby Poels won first place and $500 for her "Chatter Box" business idea and also won $50 for giving the best 4-minute presentation. Congrats to all!

STUCO Fundraising

Our student council has worked hard this year to earn money to buy new PE equipment to use during community and class free time outside. They sold earbuds and Panther flags and also held a penny wars competition. Thank you, STUCO!

Qualifying Students Enjoy Reward Before Break 👍

On the Friday before Spring Break students who qualified took advantage of dodgeball in the gym and games and movies in teachers' rooms. Way to go, kids!

Scholars Near Finish

Our scholars bowl teams have been busy lately! They traveled to some meets at other schools, and our home meet was on March 3. Way to go, smarties! MCEL is next week.
