Halloween Celebrate Kids Day Surprises All 🎃👻 Still Earns KMEA Honor

On October 28 Mr. Strasburg sent us all a crazy email. He said that the next day was not only Celebrate Kids Day (even though it was Thursday), but that we could also wear our Halloween costumes to school if we wanted. WHAT? A lot of kids had fun with this unexpected dress-up day.

We are proud to announce that band teacher, Vesta Jo Still, was awarded the Outstanding JH Music Educator Award for the KMEA Northwest District. She was presented with the honor on November 3 by vocal teacher Kelsey Pinkerton. Congrats!!

Webinar Offered to Honor Band and Choir Students

Students of Phillipsburg Middle School were selected to participate in the KMEA Northwest District Honor Band and Choir last Saturday, November 7. While usually this event would include an all-day workshop that concludes with a concert, this year it looked a bit different. Honor musicians were invited to take part in a webinar with guest clinicians. Way to be musical, peeps!

JH Basketball Teams Play First Games of the Season in Russell

Last Thursday our basketball teams traveled to Russell for their first games. They hustled and played their hearts out. Way to go, Panthers! Boys' BB pics by Steven Seems
