Poster and Poem Winners Honor Our Veterans 🇺🇸

Students were asked to create a Veterans Day poster or poem to fit the theme "Service." Our teachers judged the posters and poems, and the following students were the grade level winners: 5th graders Kalinda Meili and Dawson Bieghler, 6th graders Gabby Poels and Cleveland Corman, 7th graders Emah Shields and Ethan Knowles, and 8th grader Dakota Conrad-Farr. The best overall poem was written by Jhett Johnson, and Payton Dinkel made the best overall poster. Way to honor veterans, guys!

Munyon Discusses P-Burg Future

Phillipsburg Mayor Lance Munyon spoke to the seventh grade class on Tuesday about his Vision 2030, including the new sports complex, changes to the city park, and other things he wants to see happen in our community. The seventh graders will write an essay explaining how they would improve the community if they were elected mayor, so this talk was an awesome introduction to that! Photo by Katrina Russell
