Springer Honored as Nov. Rotary Student

Today Colin Springer was honored as the November Rotary student of the month at the Rotary luncheon at Willer's. He was accompanied by Mrs. Pinkerton. Way to go, Colin!!

Marchall "Mow-tivated" To Do Good Deeds 🍌😊

Our very own Marchall Russell has been very busy! He recently got recognized for completing Raising Men Lawn Care Service's 50-yard challenge by mowing 50 free lawns for the elderly, disabled, single parents, and veterans in Phillipsburg. Rodney Smith presented him with a certificate and a "Raising Men" t-shirt and hat. He also earned a new push mower, weed eater, and leaf blower so that he can do more good deeds in our community. Since being recognized, he has mowed 70 free lawns total. Way to go, Marchall!

Students Honor Veterans in Creative Ways 🇺🇸✍️

Last week was the deadline for the Veterans Day posters and poems. Our students worked hard and came up with some very creative works! Teachers and staff members judged, and they chose a poster/poem from each grade level section and an overall best poem and poster. Skyla Russell earned the award for overall best poster, and Jhett Johnson wrote the best poem. Way to honor our Veterans, guys!
