Junior Panthers Show School Pride During Busy and Fun Spirit Week

Last week was Spirit Week, so it was pretty wild. Monday was Paradise/Hawaiian Vacation Day, Tuesday was Twin Day, Wednesday was Neon Day, and Thursday and Friday were Jersey Day and Blue and Gold Day, as usual. We saw some great outfits. Way to show spirit, guys!

STEMM Presentations

On September 16, professionals from the fields of STEMM (Science, Technology, Engineering, Math, and Medical) came to present to students in the gym. It was really interesting and opened our eyes to some awesome careers!

Positive Panthers

Color Run Enjoyed on Sunny Fall Day 🍂🏃☀️🏃

Last Wednesday our students and some staff members participated in the Color Run. This year FCCLA chose to run for autism awareness, so there were signs along the route displaying information about autism. It was a beautiful day and an awesome experience!

Sixth Graders Take In WACKY Days Field Trip

On September 15, 6th graders went on the WACKY Day field trip. They learned about conservation and wildlife and had lots of fun, even though it was pretty chilly!

Band Marches On

Last week brought early morning practices for our band members to prepare for the Homecoming halftime performance. They also marched in the parade on Friday afternoon. Way to perform, Panther band!
