PJH Students & Staff Make Most of Spirit Week

Last week was pretty wild, as Spirit Week always is. This year's days were Teacher Day, Superhero Day, Meme Day, Jersey Day, and Blue and Gold Day. We saw some pretty awesome costumes. Way to dress up and have fun with it!

PJH Leaders Attend StuCo Conference

Last Tuesday, all of our StuCo members attended a conference in Ellis with Mr. Hindman. The theme was U R > (you are greater than...). They learned a lot, and Luke Hoover even won a t-shirt for showing off his epic dance moves!

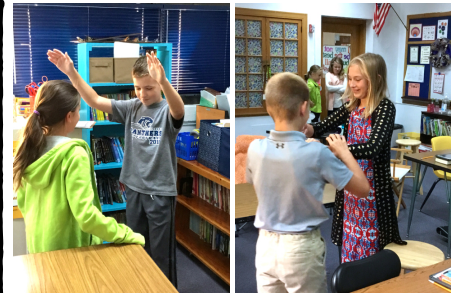

Students Have Fun With Second Step 🧐

We have been learning a lot using the new Second Step social-emotional learning program. In this lesson, Mrs. Ford's students had to be sculptures and pose their partner into an aggressive stance.

Volleyball Girls Earn First at Belleville Tourney 🏆

On September 22, the volleyball girls headed to Belleville for the Republic County Tournament. It was awesome! They beat Thayer Central, Republic County, and Deschler in pool play. Then they defeated Washington County to win the championship. They appreciated all of the awesome fan support that day. Go Panthers!

XC Season Rolls On 🏃

Our cross country runners have been getting more experience lately. They went to Beloit last Thursday and ran their hearts out! They will finish up their season at the home meet tomorrow.
