Students Enjoy Movies During Lunch Period 🍔🎬

Lunch is pretty weird this year, with students and staff members eating in classrooms. We asked some kids how they spend that time.

"Watch movies and talk with friends."

-Cailyn Fitzpatrick

"Watch movies and hang with friends."

-Tanner Horinek

"Usually watch a movie."

-Jackson Brown

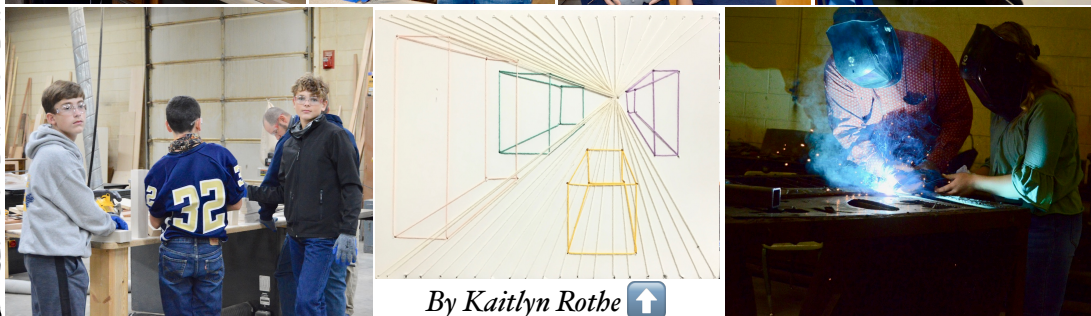

"Watch a movie."

-Ty Horinek

Eighth Graders Rock Hands-On Learning 🧑🔧⚙️🧑

8th graders have been working hard to finish up hand-on projects in their first-hour electives. Ag students are learning how to weld, woods kids are making milk crates, and art students are making yarn perspective pieces. Tech students have also been building cool stuff in class. Way to learn new things, Panthers!

Seems Honored as Sept. Rotary Student

Caden Seems was chosen by his teachers as the Rotary student for the month of September. He didn't get to go to lunch due to COVID, but he received a certificate and got his picture taken for the newspaper. Good job, Seems!

Physical Education Fun

We captured some fun pics of the 8th graders warming up for class, then playing gladiator dodgeball!

Fall Sports Teams Work Toward End of Seasons

Fall sports are really busy. This week we had a volleyball quad, volleyball and football at Smith Center, and cross country here at home. MCEL will take place this Saturday and hopefully next Monday if our girls make it to the finals. Go Panthers!!
