Color Run Raises Awareness of Childhood Cancer

Last Wednesday, we participated in the FCCLA/PCMC Color Run/Walk to raise awareness of childhood cancer. It was a fun activity to do as a school for such a good cause. Way to go, Panthers! Pics by Kris Molzahn Manz

PJH Students Give Back on Good Deeds Day 🇺🇸

Last Friday, all students and staff participated in Good Deeds Day. We picked up trash, washed windows, and made encouraging and patriotic signs and chalk designs around town. It felt really good to do good deeds to honor those who lost their lives on 9/11/01.

Gilligan's Island Fun 🙌

Mrs. Dinkel's fifth graders used their cooperative talents to get off Gilligan's Island in PE class!

Cross Country Team Runs First Race 🏃🏃

Our cross country runners had their first meet at Stockton last Thursday. They had a great time and won some medals. Way to go, Panthers!

Football and Volleyball Teams Work to Improve

Our fall athletes have been busy playing lots of football and volleyball since our last issue. They are working hard to improve their skills and are having some fun too!
