Students and Staff Take Advantage of Spirit Week 🥰💛🦸👏💙🦧😎

Spirit Week is always wild, and last week was no exception! Due to no school on Labor Day, it was only four days long. Tuesday was Hero vs. Villain Day, Wednesday was College Fan Day, Thursday was Jersey Day, and Friday was Panther Pride Day. It was fun to see everyone get into the spirit and support the Panthers!

Early Release for Homecoming Brings Excitement and Fun For All 😊

Last Friday school dismissed at 2:00pm for Homecoming. Many students attended the parade and pep rally. The band did a great job marching in the parade, and our STUCO kids joined the high school STUCO members on a float. At the pep rally, our cheerleaders joined the high school cheerleaders for an awesome performance. They nailed their cheers and builds. Way to go, everyone!

Panthers Work to Improve 🏃🏈🏐🏆

Last week was another busy one for our athletes! The volleyball and football teams played in Plainville, and the cross-country team ran in Stockton. Everyone worked hard. Way to work to improve!

"Stand for the Silent" Assembly Encourages Kindness

On Tuesday morning, the PHS FCCLA invited the 7th and 8th graders to attend a Suicide Prevention Assembly at Huck Boyd. Kirk Smalley's son, Ty, committed suicide when he was 11 years old. So, he's teamed up with "Stand for the Silent" and has made it his mission to travel around and talk to students about bullying. He wants to help kids understand that they are ones who can help. He wasn't asking us to be perfect but to apologize when needed. "You can't do everything, but you can do something."
