Panthers Do Good Deeds To Honor 9/11 Victims

Last Friday we got to help paint the fire hydrants around town in the afternoon. It was a really hot, but fun and rewarding experience. We did the work to honor those who lost their lives on September 11, 2001. The Kays provided cookies when we got back to the school. Way to volunteer, guys!

Junior Panthers Enjoy Fall Sports Seasons

We had fun at the first home volleyball and football games on September 2 vs. Beloit. The cross country team finally got to run at Stockton on September 9. Way to go, kids!

Eighth grade vocal students got the honor of singing the National Anthem at the first home football game on September 2. It was really cool! The girls sang but weren't in the pic, so we took a pic of them later.

We miss you, Bailey!
