Good Deeds Done in Remembrance of 9/11 ❤️🇺🇸❤️

On Monday Mr. Hindman and Mrs. Stites's Social Studies classes did good deeds around the community in memory of those who died on 9/11/01. They delivered cookies to the Board of Education office, the high school, the EMS office, and the Sheriff's Department office. They also picked up trash around town, chalked messages on the old stadium walls and the school and courthouse sidewalks, and held up encouraging signs along the highway. They did all of these things with good hearts and their full effort. Way to go, PJH students! Photos by Mr. Hindman and Mrs. Stites

Wyatt and Ragsdale Voted New STUCO Leaders

This year's STUCO election sure looked different. Instead of gathering in the gym to hear speeches, candidates submitted their pre-recorded video speeches to Mr. Hindman and we watched them during community time Last Friday. There were some tight races, but these students earned the most votes from our students: President Layton Wyatt, VP Kalee Ragsdale, 8th grade representatives Alex Van Allen and Brynn Billings, 7th grade representatives Chloe VanDerVeen and Zavier Mitchell, 6th grade representatives Chloe Jacobs and Eli Springer, and 5th grade representatives Ava Schemper and Jacob Driggs. Congratulations to all!
