Sweet Turnout for Donuts and Discussion

On Tuesday, parents and students were invited to school at 7:35am for donuts, a drink, and discussion. First National Bank & Trust generously provided the donuts. Mr. Look thought it would be a good chance for parents to visit with the teachers and ask any questions they might have. It was a sweet experience!

6th Graders Enjoy Hot WACKY Days Field Trip 🔥

On Wednesday, the 6th grade class headed to Kirwin Wildlife Refuge for WACKY Days. It was hot, but they got to experience many conservation and wildlife-related activities and had a delicious lunch. Mrs. Hugunin, Mrs. Moeder, Mrs. Thompson, and Mrs. Bouchey were their lucky chaperones. Pics by Mrs. Hugunin and Mrs. Thompson

Russom Honored at Sept. Rotary Meeting

Yesterday Makenna Russom was honored at the September meeting of the Phillipsburg Rotary Club. She got to eat lunch at the Branding Iron II with Mr. Look and Mrs. Molzahn. Way to go, Makenna!

First Pep Rally Held

Last Thursday, the cheerleaders had a really fun pep rally, complete with great cheers, cool speeches, and a fun skit. The band was rockin' too!

XC Sendoff Pumps Team

Right before our first pep rally, the cross country team got dismissed and were surprised with a spirit-filled sendoff!
