Fletcher VanKooten Receives Technology Award 🖥️ 📱 🤖

Today Fletcher VanKooten received the Outstanding Student Technology Achievement Award in Wichita for his work on learning to use and becoming proficient with his eye gaze machine to communicate with his family, teachers, and friends. He was honored at a luncheon with his parents Blaine and Stacey VanKooten, Mrs. Wilson, his para, Mrs. Glynn, Mrs. Keeten, and other family members there to support him. Way to go, Fletcher! We are so proud of you!

November Panthers of the Month Honored

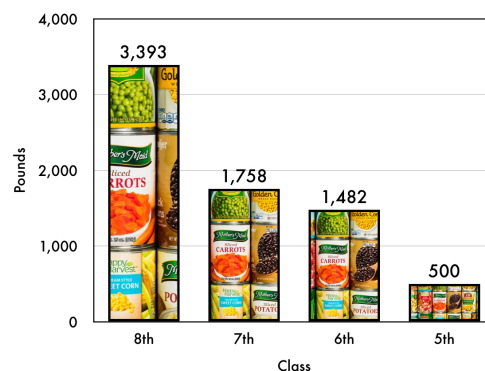

We would like to congratulate our November Panthers of the Month: Brooklyn Schemper, Parker Hilburn, Clay Thomas, and Aubrey Post. They work hard in the classroom and beyond. Way to go, kids! They each earned a gift certificate from "Get Scooped!"

Jr. Panthers Step Up To "Feed the Turkey" Challenge 🦃 🍽️

Students and staff members were challenged to bring money and food for the local food pantry, and there were also benefits for them. Staff members could wear jeans for a $10 donation, and students could wear pajamas or a hat for the day if they donated $1. There was also a competition between classes, and the 8th graders won! They were treated to ice cream floats on the Monday before Thanksgiving during Community. Good job! Students delivered 278 pounds of food and a check for $1,373 to the food pantry last Tuesday. Way to give, students and staff! The final results are as follows:

POUNDS OF FOOD DONATED

It feels good to do good!
