Panthers Have a Blast at Fall Sports Pep Rally 🙌

Last Thursday our fall sports pep rally was held in the gym. It featured the band playing their hearts out, the teams giving inspiring speeches, the cheerleaders showing maximum spirit, and a fun wig-snatching skit. Way to go, Panthers!

Junior Panthers Wrap Up Fall Sports Seasons

It's been really exciting in our fall sports world lately! Our cross country team finished up their season at the home meet, our football team beat Plainville at home, and the volleyball girls won the MCEL tournament quad at home on Monday. Woo hoo! They will play Hill City and Plainville tomorrow in the MCEL tournament triangular and will try for first place in the league! Good luck, ladies!

Thomas Honored as Oct. Rotary Student

Yesterday Clay Thomas was honored as our October Rotary student of the month! He was selected by his teachers, and he got to go to lunch with Mrs. Molzahn at Farmhouse Kitchen. Way to do great things!

September Students of the Month Honored

We would like to congratulate September's Panther Students of the Month: Claire Van Allen, Kira Pinkerton, Brooklyn Schemper, and Emry Hindman. Their teachers voted for them to receive this honor, and they each received a Lil' Cherry on Top gift card. Way to go!

Owl Pellets Dissected

Mrs. Lennemann's 8th grade students rooted around in owl pellets while dissecting them a while back. Gross, but fun!
